Volunteer Opportunities (mark all that you are interested in):

- Museum Assistant
Welcome all visitors to the Museum, staff the gift shop, provide information to tourists, answer phone calls
- Docent League
Docents bring the Museum to the local classrooms and provide guided tours to groups visiting the museum.
- Art Gallery
Help set up and take down shows, organize & set up food for receptions, help determine which artists to feature in a given year, participate in committee meetings (6 per year)
- Fundraising
Help plan and run events, handle mailings, help create new events and opportunities
- Building and Grounds
Maintain the garden and grounds around the museum.
Change light bulbs, fix doors, fix minor plumbing issues, paint and do all the little maintenance jobs that come up from time to time.
- Wildflower Exhibit (April)
This event is both beautiful and educational and the means by which the Museum's permanent wildflower botanical collection is gathered. Volunteers work collecting plants, preparing them for exhibit, labeling each with its common and scientific name, and displaying them within their plant families
